PREFACE TO FOURTH EDITION.

IN 1891 we issued the first edition of our Sketch Book, and in 1892 and 1894 the second and third editions appeared. The first two contained sketches showing the adaptability of our Moulded or Ornamental Brick for Fire-place Mantels, and also for Doorways, Arches, Chimneys, Panels, Windows, etc., etc. But our Mantel business grew so fast that in the third and fourth editions we decided to increase the number of Mantel designs, and leave out the other sketches and issue them by themselves under another cover.

We have, therefore, devoted this book to forty sketches of Mantels, from which selections can be made at most any range of size and price, and if your plans will, or can be made to admit of the use of our Brick for any of the other purposes above mentioned, we should be glad to send you some sketches as suggestions.

Nearly every modern house, large or small, has at least one open Fire-place, and this is as it should be, considering the comfort and good cheer which is always derived from one, to say nothing of that very important item of good vetilation which it ensures to a room.

Our Brick are made in steel moulds, and the lines stand out in full relief, presenting the appearance and effect of carved work, and the superiority of the Brick for Fireplace Mantels is apparent for several reasons.

They are made in six different colors, viz: red, cream, buff, pink, brown and gray, thus giving you the choice of color which will harmonize with, or contrast properly with any other scheme of surrounding decoration. The designs can most of them be altered to fit a required space, so that our customers need not give up the idea of selecting a certain sketch which has pleased them the most, just because it is not the right size; we can generally make it of the right size. The Mantels, unlike wood mantels, will not swell, nor shrink, nor peel, nor crack, nor blister, nor catch fire, and they do not have to be varnished or painted every few years. They look as well in after years as they do when new. The brick have a soft, rich, and resting effect, very unlike the cold and glassy effect of glazed brick or tile. Too much woodwork is often crowded in, and having the Fireplace Mantel entirely of brick obviates such a defect.

The Mantels can be very easily set in place by any intelligent mason, with the aid of the architect's working plan and directions which we send with every order, and some of the finest work of mantel-laying has been done by masons who never had set a brick mantel before.

Another item is the matter of expense. Our Mantels, when set in position, will not cost any more than a plain brick fireplace with a wood mantel around it, and in many cases our Mantels cost less. These sketches were all prepared by a well-known Boston architect, whose European travel rendered him peculiarly fitted for the work, and the sketches embody many of the best ideas of the best productions of England and the Continent.

Opposite each sketch you will see drawings, showing details of the Ornamental Brick used in the design. The prices quoted in this book include packing (in hay or sawdust) in barrels, and delivery on board cars or steamer at Boston.

SKETCH No. 1.

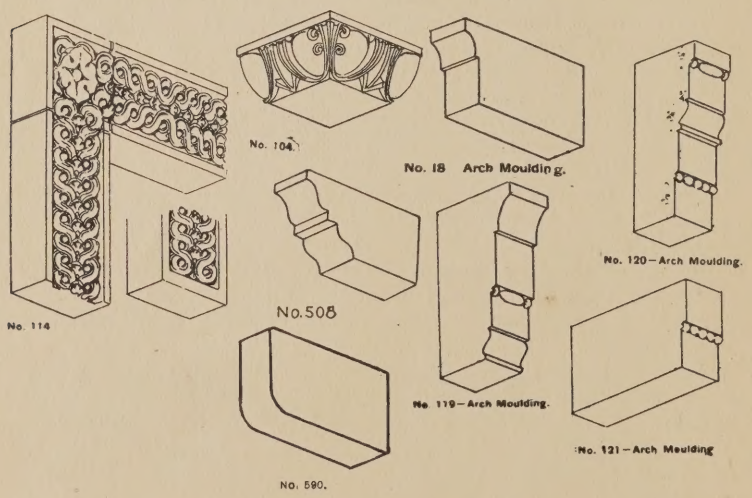
A mantel with an arched fireplace and a niche above it. This mantel should have nearly the width indicated below, as the arch would not look well in a much narrower fireplace. The hobs may be omitted, if desired.

Width of breast . .	7 feet 6 inches.	Height of opening . .	2 feet 8 inches.
Height of mantel . .	7 " 4 "	Width between hobs .	2 " 6 "
Width of opening . .	4 " 9 "

Price of red face and moulded bricks necessary to lay up this mantel, including the hearth, fire-back, under-fire, and tile shelf, $78.

Price of cream, buff, brown, pink, or gray bricks, $116.

Below is a drawing of each ornamental brick used in this design.



SKETCH No. 2.

This sketch suggests a mantel in two shades of brick. All the face brick showing white in sketch will be of cream bricks; all the other bricks will be gray. Hearth of red bricks.

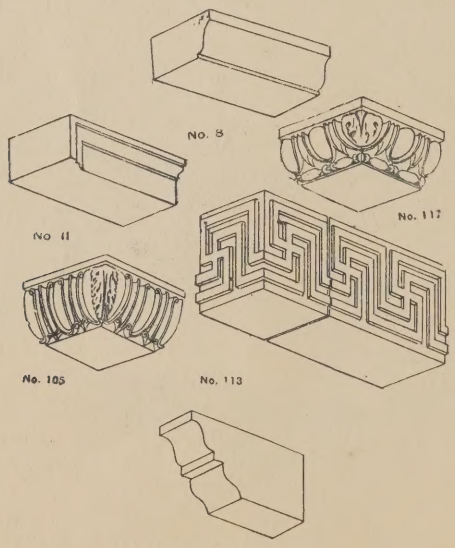
Width of breast . .	5 feet 6 inches.	Width of opening . .	2 feet 6 inches.
Height of mantel . .	5 " 5 "	Height of opening . .	2 " 5 "

Price of red face and moulded bricks necessary to lay up this mantel, including the hearth, fire-back, under-fire, and tile shelf, $35.

Price of cream, buff, brown, pink, or gray bricks, $52.50.

Price of cream, with gray moulded work, $52.50.

Below is a drawing of each ornamental brick used in this design.



SKETCH No. 3.

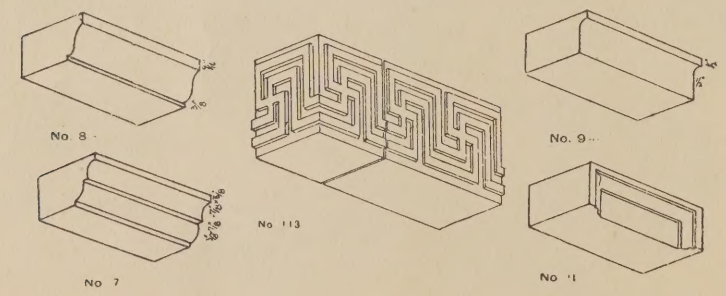
A low mantel with panel pilasters and enriched architrave.

Width of breast . .	7 feet 6 inches.	Width of opening . .	3 feet 4 inches.
Height of mantel . .	4 " 4 "	Height of opening . .	2 " 7 "

Price of red face and moulded bricks necessary to lay up this mantel, including the hearth, fire-back, under-fire and tile shelf, $31.

Price of cream, buff, gray, pink, or brown bricks, $45.

Below is a drawing of each ornamental brick used in this design.



SKETCH No. 4.

A handsome high mantel, with a wide niche above the fireplace. This design requires a wooden cornice at the top, forming a shelf.

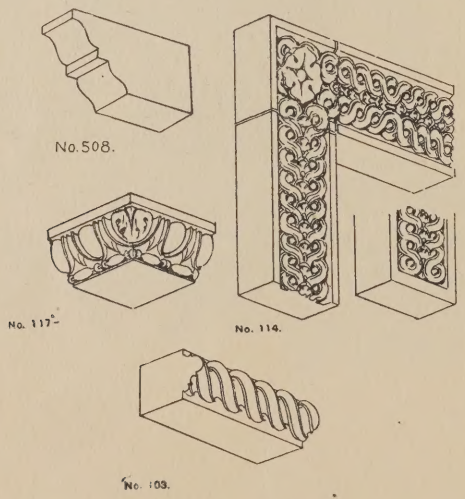
Width of breast . .	6 feet 8 inches.	Width of opening . .	3 feet.
Height of mantel . .	7 " 6¾ "	Height of opening . .	2 " 5 inches.

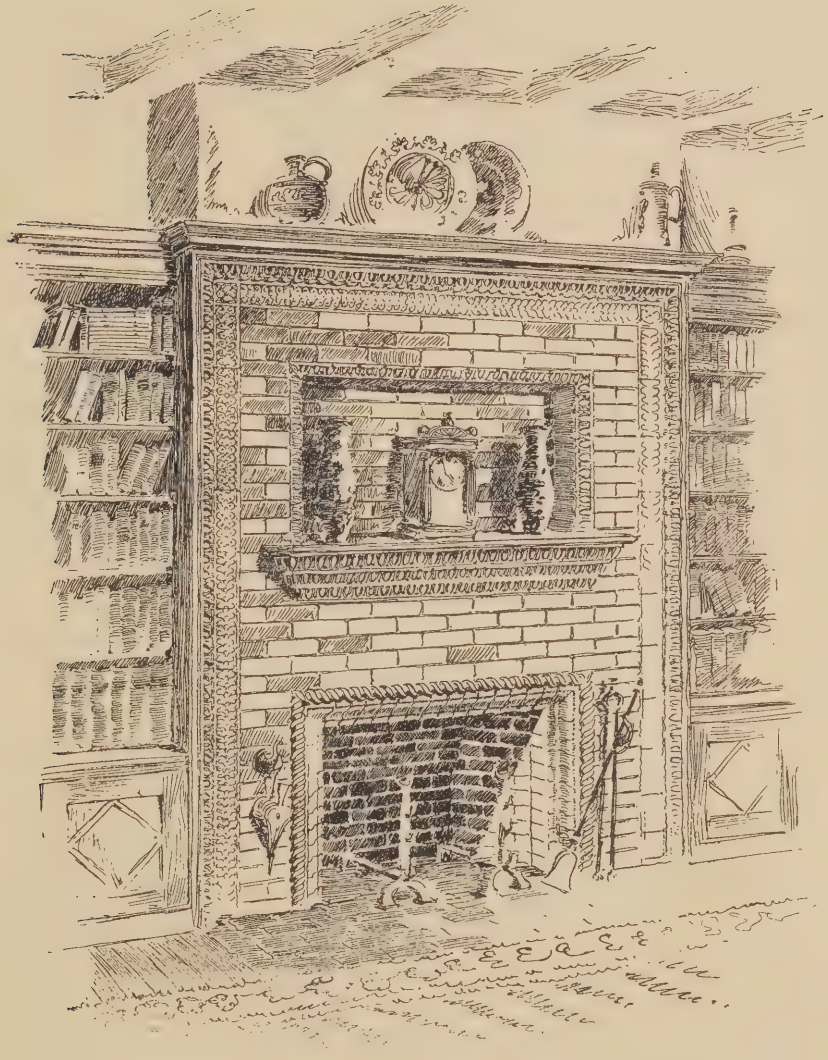
Price of red face and moulded bricks necessary to lay up this mantel, including the hearth, fire-back, under-fire, and tile shelf, $52.

Price of cream, buff, gray, pink, or brown bricks, $78.

Price of wood cornice not included.

Below is a drawing of each ornamental brick used in this design.





SKETCH No. 5.

This design would require a width of 7 feet 6 inches, as the arched motif could not be used advantageously in a mantel of more than 8 inches less in width. The cornice to the mantel is of wood.

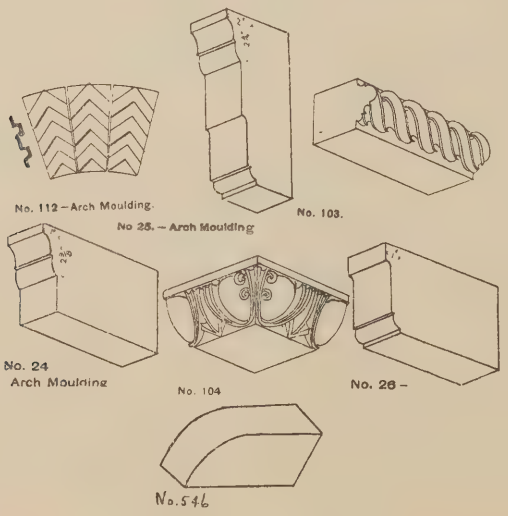
Width of breast . .	7 feet 6 inches.	Width of opening . .	4 feet 9 inches.
Height of mantel . .	7 " 3 "	Height of opening . .	2 " 8 "

Price of red face and moulded bricks necessary to lay up this mantel, including the hearth, fire-back, under-fire, and tile shelf, $60.

Price of cream, buff, gray, pink, or brown bricks, $90.

Price of wood cornice not included.

Below is a drawing of each ornamental brick used in this design.



SKETCH No. 6.

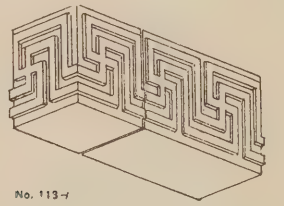
A delicate mantel, with fret ornament around fire-place.

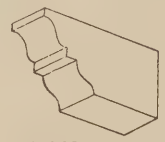
Width of breast . .	5 feet 6 inches.	Width of opening . .	2 feet 8 inches.
Height of mantel . .	4 " 10 "	Height of opening . .	2 " 3 "

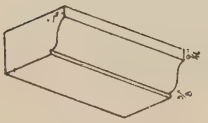
Price of red face and moulded bricks necessary to lay up this mantel, including the hearth, fire-back, under-fire, and tile shelf, $34.

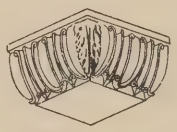
Price of cream, buff, gray, pink, or brown bricks, $52.

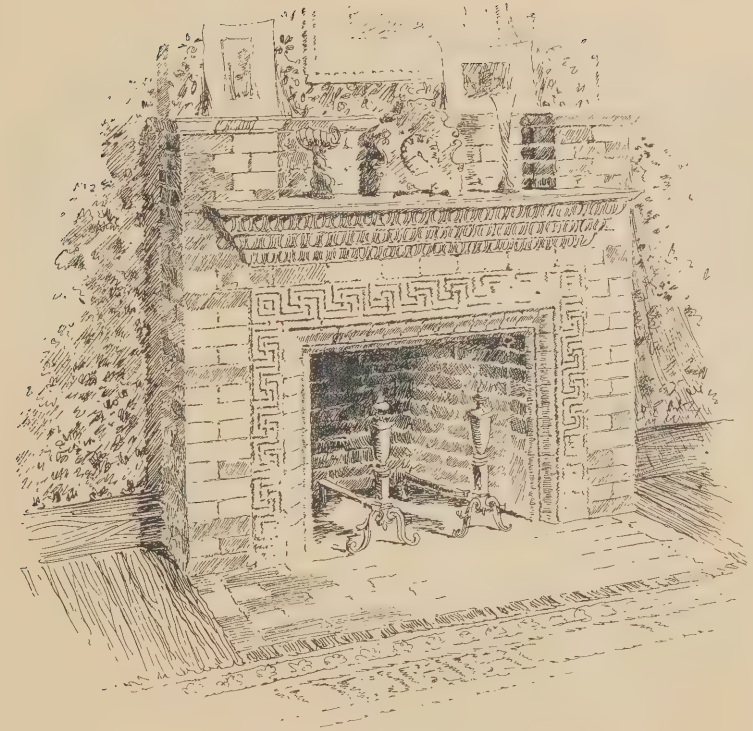
Below is a drawing of each ornamental brick used in this design.











SKETCH No. 7.

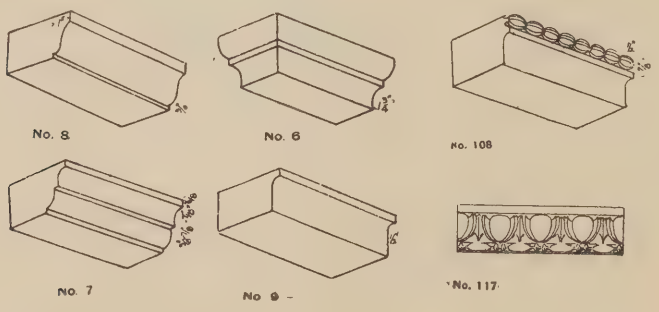
A simple mantel.

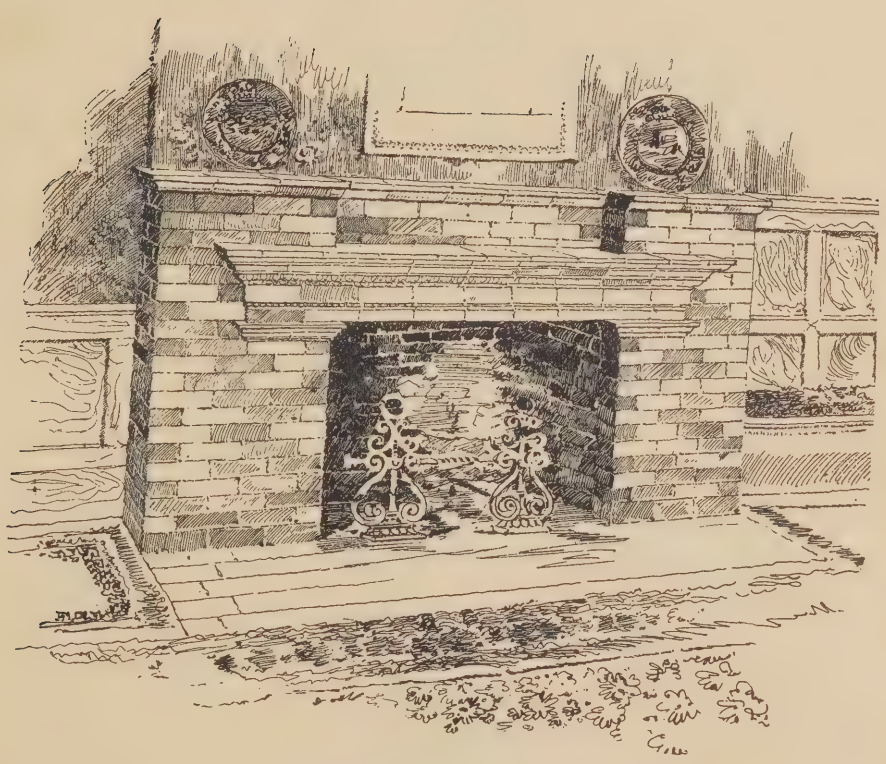
Width of breast . .	7 feet 6 inches.	Width of opening . .	3 feet 4 inches.
Height of mantel . .	4 " 3 "	Height of opening . .	2 " 6 "

Price of red face and moulded bricks necessary to lay up this mantel, including the hearth, fire-back, under-fire, and tile shelf, $26.

Price of cream, buff, gray, pink, or brown bricks, $39.

Below is a drawing of each ornamental brick used in this design.





SKETCH No. 8.

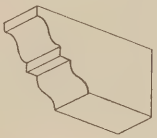
This mantel best adapted to a narrow chimney.

Width of breast . .	5 feet 8 inches.	Width of opening	3 feet.
Height of mantel . .	4 " 7 "	Height of opening	2 "

Price of red face and moulded bricks necessary to lay up this mantel, including the hearth, fire-back, under-fire, and tile shelf, $28.

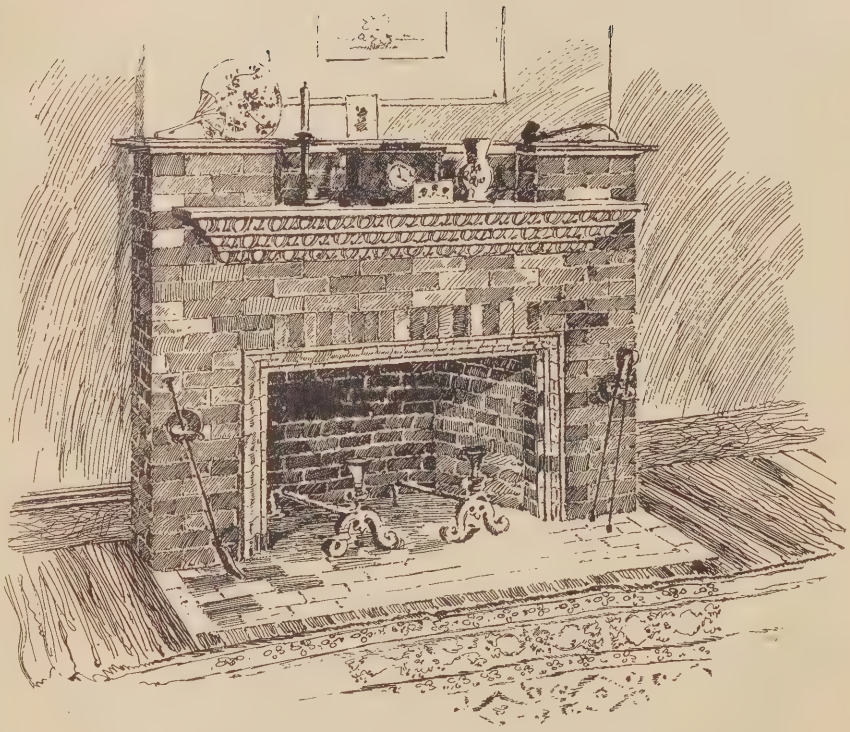
Price of cream, buff, gray, pink, or brown bricks, $42.

Below is a drawing of each ornamental brick used in this design.



No. 508.

No 104



SKETCH No. 9.

The opening in this mantel is 5 feet high, the upper portion being fitted with a wrought-iron grille, with a sheet of plate-glass at the back. This enables one to see the flames as they curl up the chimney, and a decided charm is added to the fireplace. This design is best adapted to a narrow chimney breast.

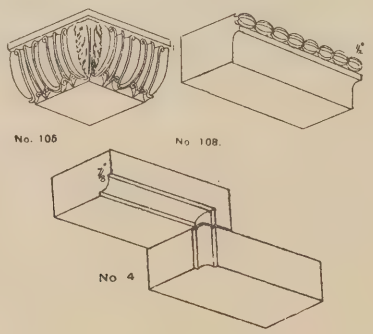
Width of breast . .	5 feet 6 inches.	Width of opening . .	2 feet 8 inches.
Height of mantel . .	7 " 2½ "	Height of opening . .	2 " 8 "

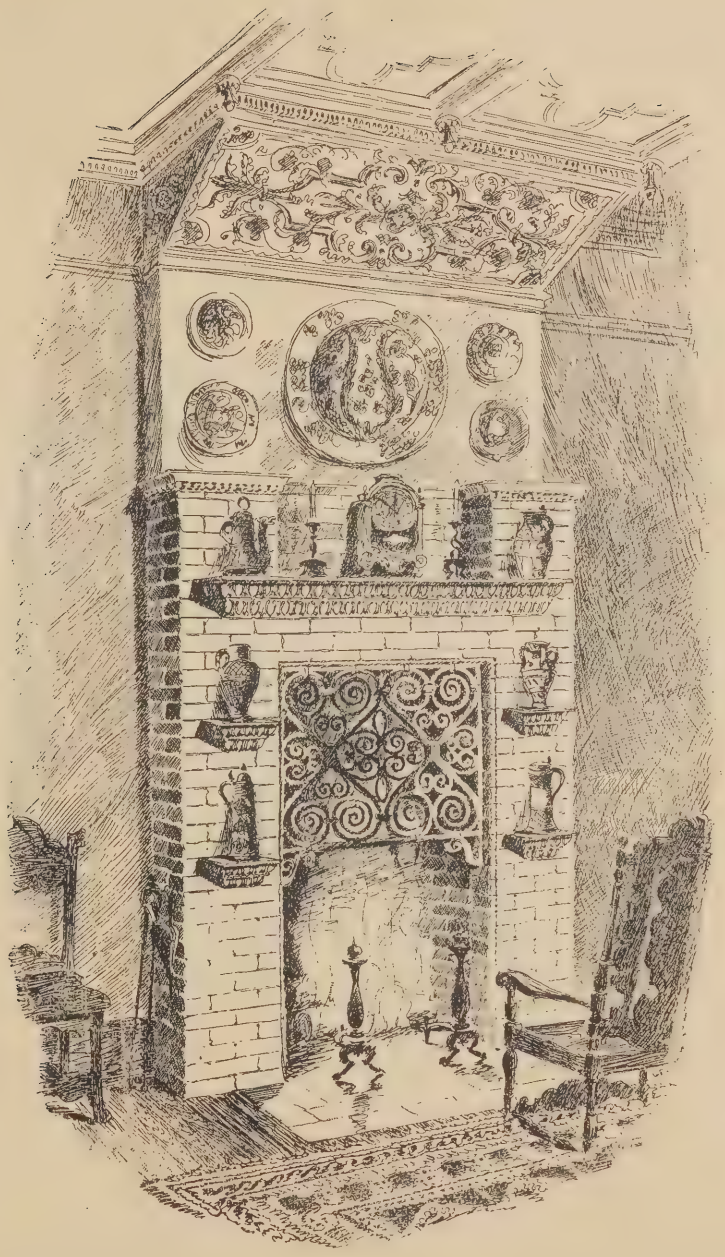
Price of red face and moulded bricks necessary to lay up this mantel, including the hearth, fire-back, under-fire, and tile shelf, $36.

Price of cream, buff, gray, brown, or pink bricks, $54.

Iron grille and plate-glass, $25.50 additional.

Below is a drawing of each ornamental brick used in this design.





SKETCH No. 10.

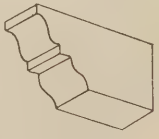
This mantel best adapted to a narrow chimney.

Width of breast . .	6 feet.	Width of opening . .	2 feet 10½ inches.
Height of mantel . .	4 " 8 inches.	Height of opening . .	2 "

Price of red face and moulded bricks necessary to lay up this mantel, including the hearth, under-fire, fire-back, and tile shelf, $36.

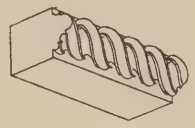
Price of cream, buff, gray, pink, or brown bricks, $54.

Below is a drawing of each ornamental brick used in this design.

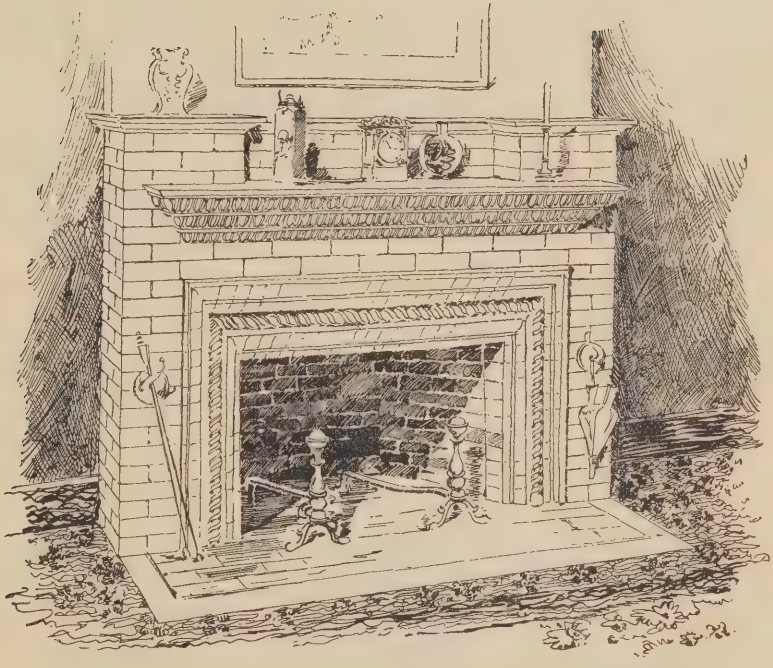


No. 508.

No. 105



No 103.



SKETCH No. 11.

A new and beautiful feature is introduced in this design. The mosaic decoration is made of the same clay as the brick in a great variety of shades. Assume all the plain and carved bricks in this design a warm gray color, and the tones of the mosaic decorations, as indicated in sketch, from a dark warm gray to cream. This scheme of color can be produced in reds, etc. A frame ¼ inch x 1½ inch wrought iron and brackets around the fire-place opening form a part of this design.

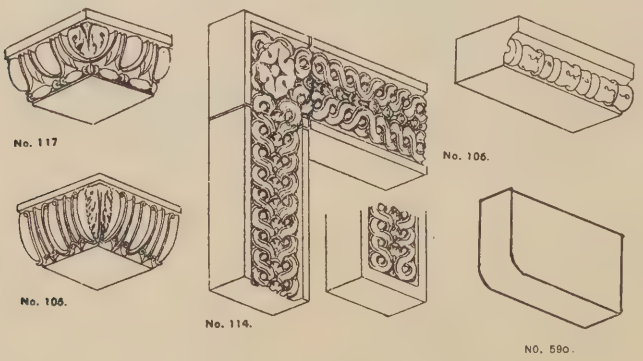
Width of breast . .	5 feet 6 inches.	Width between hobs .	2 feet 9 inches.
Height of mantel . .	7 "	Height of opening . .	2 " 6 "
Width of opening . .	3 " 5 "

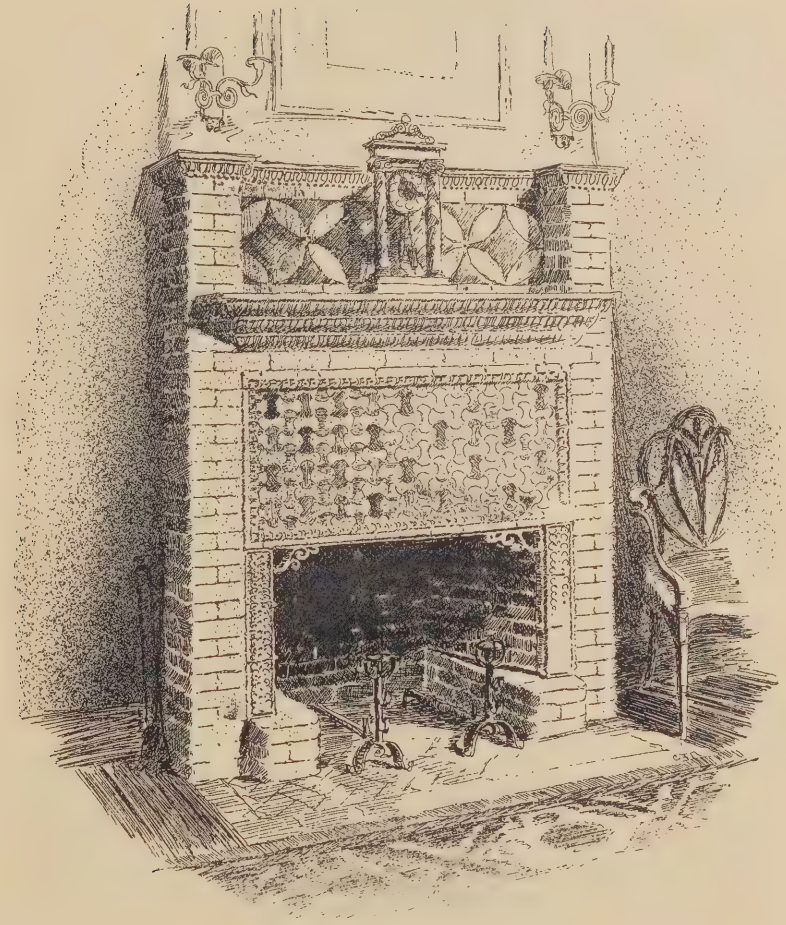
Price of red face and moulded bricks necessary to lay up this mantel including the hearth, fire-back, under-fire, and tile shelf, $45.

Price of cream, gray, pink, buff, or brown bricks, $67.50.

Price of frame and brackets not included.

Below is a drawing of each ornamental brick used is this design.





SKETCH No. 12.

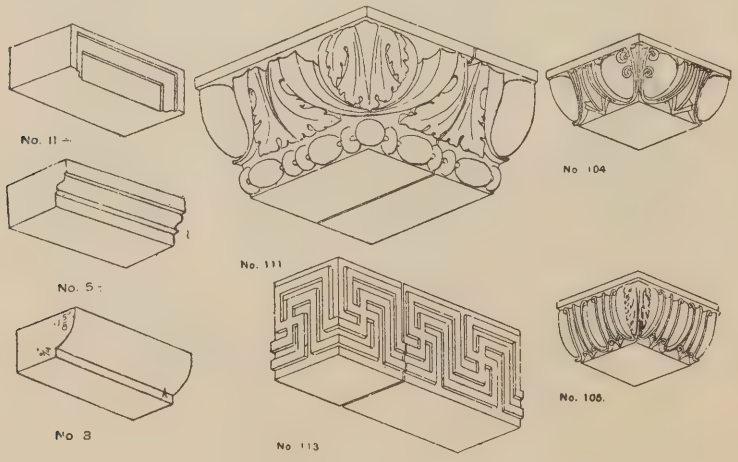
This illustration shows a design adapting the form of mantel frequently seen in England and France, with a hood extending to the ceiling. The fireplace opening may be from 3 feet 6 inches to 4 feet 6 inches in width, without changing the height of the mantel. If a wider opening is desired, the proportion of the mantel should be changed, and we would be pleased to prepare a drawing for the same. This design would look well in a large hall, in a residence or in a public building, as a library, assembly hall, or hotel.

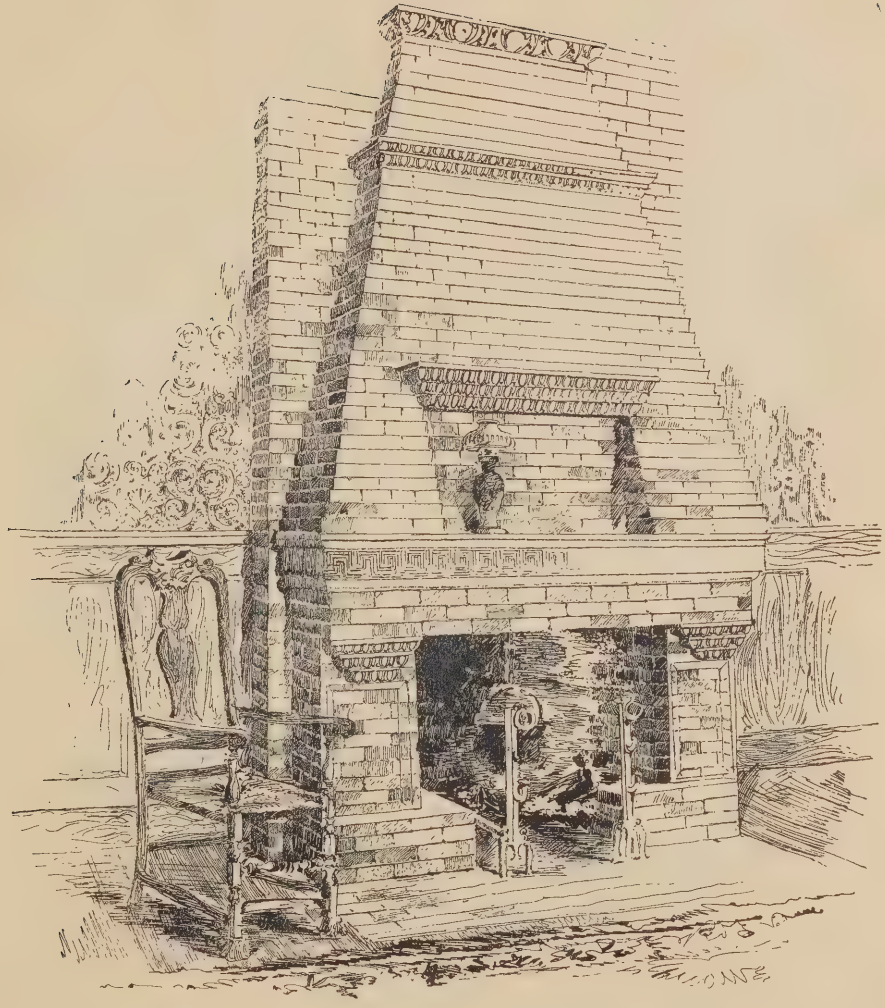
Width of breast . .	7 feet 6 inches.	Width of opening . .	4 feet 1 inch.
Height of mantel . .	12 "	Height of opening . .	3 " 7 inches.

Price of red face and moulded bricks necessary to lay up this mantel, including the hearth, fire-back, under-fire, and tile shelf, $70.

Price of cream, gray, buff, pink, or brown bricks, $105.

Below is a drawing of each ornamental brick used in this design.





SKETCH No. 13.

This also shows a hooded mantel, but much lower.

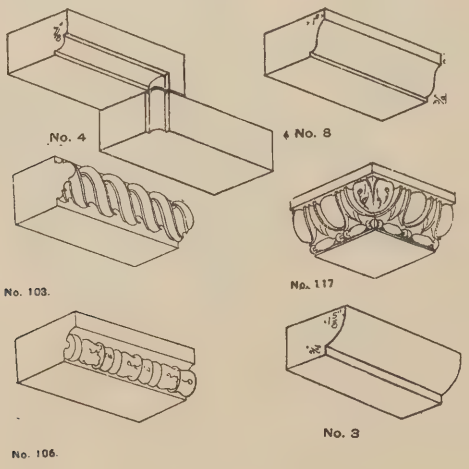
Width of breast . .	6 feet.	Width of opening . .	2 feet 8 inches.
Height of mantel . .	5 " 7 inches.	Height of opening . .	2 " 7 "

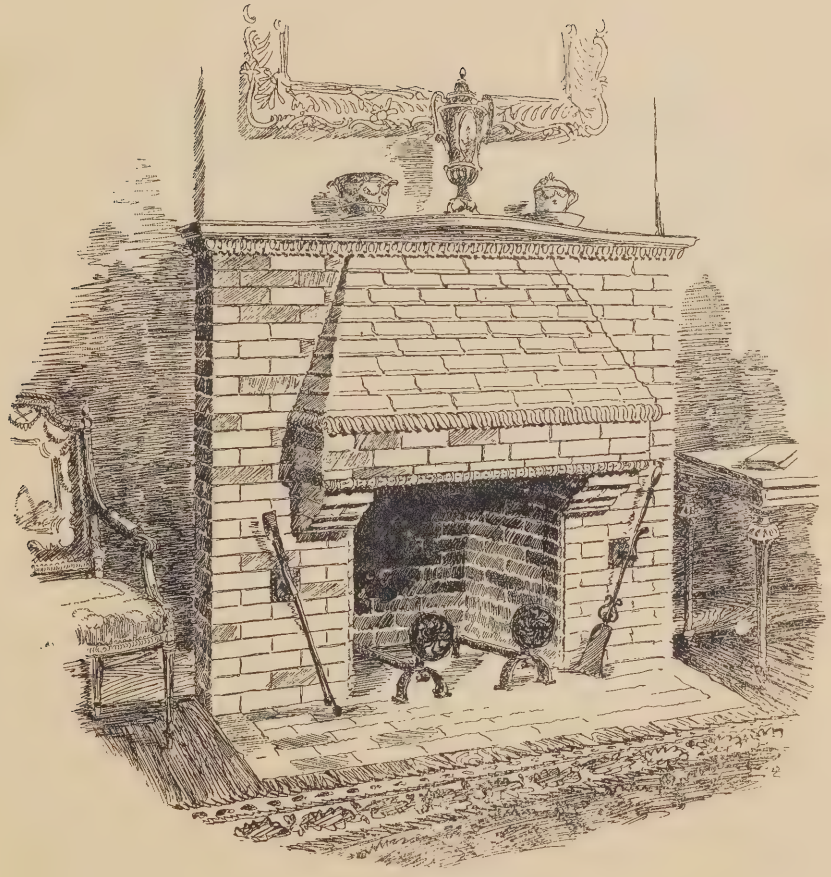
Price of red face and moulded bricks necessary to lay up this mantel, including the hearth, fire-back, and under-fire, $32.

Price of cream, buff, pink, gray or brown bricks, $48.

Price with plain sides in cream bricks, and the corbels, lintel hood, and egg and dart at the top of a warm gray, $48.

Below is a drawing of each ornamental brick used in this design.





SKETCH No. 14.

Shelf of wood.

Width of breast . .	6 feet 6 inches.	Width between hobs .	2 feet 3 inches.
Height of mantel . .	4 " 7 "	Height of opening . .	2 " 5 "
Width of opening . .	3 " 6 "

Price of red face and moulded bricks necessary to lay up this mantel, including the hearth, fire-back, and under-fire, $32.

Price of cream, buff, gray, pink, or brown bricks, $48.

Wood shelf not included.

Below is a drawing of each ornamental brick used in this design.
